HIRAM SMITH'S
Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even SW[illegible] YEARS [illegible] Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

R. B. MOORE,	NATHANIEL BELL,
A. J. WALFORD,	G. R. WARD,

And others in that vicinity.

(DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.)

DATES TO APRIL 10.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—In the House the amendments to the whisky and tobacco bill were non concurred in and a committee of conference asked.

The members elect from Connecticut were sworn.

Schenck, Allison and Marshall were appointed a conference committee on the whisky and tobacco tax bill.

The bill passed to establish a land district in Wyoming.

The conference report on the Osage Indian land bill was received and adopted.

A report of a majority of the Election Committee declaring that Myers is entitled to the contested seat in Pennsylvania, was adopted by a strict party vote.

The Conference Committee's report on the deficiency bill was presented and agreed to.

The Reconstruction Committee reported a bill relieving a large number of persons from political disabilities. The House refused to suspend the rules for the passage of the bill, which, thereupon, was discussed.

Farnsworth said every name had been thoroughly scrutinized by the Reconstruction Committee and the Judiciary Committee of the Senate. After further discussion, the previous question on the passage of the bill was seconded, but without a vote the House took a recess till evening.

The Senate bill to facilitate the payment of bounties of soldiers to their heirs, was slightly amended and passed.

The consideration of the bill removing political disabilities was resumed and the bill passed—97 to 47.

In the Senate the House bill to submit the Constitutions of Virginia, Mississippi and Texas to a vote of the people, was taken up.

Morton offered an additional section, that before the States are admitted to representation in Congress, their legislatures must ratify the Fifteenth Amendment.

Trumbull will support the Amendment.

Conkling, Thurman and others, opposed Morton's amendment, which was finally adopted—30 to 20. Several amendments designed to correct ambiguity, were agreed to. The 36th section authorizing the commanding General to suspend until the action of the Legislature all laws he deems unjust and oppressive, was stricken out and a section added declaring that the proceedings of any of said States shall not be deemed final until approved by Congress. After protests by Casserly, Stockton, and other Democratic Senators, the bill passed—44 to 9. The following voted in the negative: Casserly, Bayard, Davis, Fowler, McCreary, Morton, Sprague, Stockton Thurman.

The bill to fix the status of the Judge Advocate General of the army, was amended and passed.

The President pro tem presented the President's proclamation, calling an extra session of the Senate for Monday next, for executive business.

The Senate went into executive session and then took a recess.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—In the Senate Mr. Howard called up the bill to protect the interests of the United States in the Pacific railroads. He said the Central and Union companies had agreed on a point of meeting. Mr. Howard moved to insert his amendment naming the officers who should constitute the Commission to examine the roads, which was lost, as also the motion of Mr. Williams to strike out the section directing the Attorney General to investigate whether the charter of the Union Pacific has not been forfeited.

The bill then passed.

The first section of this bill provides that the stockholders' Union Pacific meeting, to be held in Boston on the 22d of April, 1869, with power to adjourn from day to day, shall elect a Board of Directors for the ensuing year. The stockholders are authorized to establish a general office at such place as they may elect at such meeting; provided the passage of this resolution and bill shall not confer any other right on said company than to hold such election, or be construed in any manner to relinquish or waive any rights of the United States to take advantage of any act or neglect of said company, heretofore done or permitted, whereby the rights of the Government have been or may be prejudiced; provided that the common terminus of the Union and Central roads shall be at or near Ogden, and the Union shall build, and the Central shall pay for and own, the railroad from the terminus aforesaid to Promontory Summit, where rails shall meet, connect and form a continuous line.

Section two authorizes the President to appoint a Board of eminent citizens, not exceeding five, and not interested in either road, to examine and report on the condition and amount required for the completion to the terminus as a first-class road of the entire length, the expenses of the Board, including ten dollars a day each, to be paid equally by the companies.

Section three authorizes and requires the President to withhold a sufficient amount of the subsidy bonds to secure the completion of all the sections as a first class road upon which bonds have already been issued, or in lieu of such bonds, may receive security equivalent to the amount of the mortgage bonds of each company. If it appear to the President that the amount of subsidy bonds to be issued to either company is insufficient to insure the full completion, he is to make a requisition on such company for a sufficient amount of bonds already issued, or at his discretion, of their first mortgage bonds, and in default of obtaining such security, the President may authorize and direct the Attorney General to institute suits to compel the giving of such security and to otherwise protect the interests of the United States in the road and insure completion, etc.

Section four authorizes and directs the Attorney General to investigate whether or not the charters and franchises of the Union and Central companies are forfeited, whether the companies have made illegal dividends, whether the Directors, agents and employees of the companies have violated the penal law, and institute any necessary legal proceedings.

The Senate then went into executive session.

In the House, Mr. Dixon endeavored unsuccessfully to resuscitate the Senate bill to prevent the extermination of the fur animals of Alaska.

Under a suspension of the rules the Texas constitution bill was taken from the table. The Senate amendments were concurred in by a strict party vote.

The Senate joint resolution making San Diego a port of delivery was passed.

At midnight a motion for a recess till to-morrow was lost.

The next business in order was the Senate bill relative to the Central and Union Pacific railroads. Mr. Bingham moved the previous question.

Mr. Farnsworth renewed the motion for a recess, which was lost.

The bill was then passed without a division.

The Senate bill to amend the act for the construction of a railroad from the Central Pacific to Portland, Oregon, was amended, restricting the sale of lands to actual settlers, and passed.

Mr. Schenck presented the conference report on the whisky and tobacco bill, and explained it. The bill proposing an extension of time for the withdrawal of whisky in bonded warehouses was modified so as to limit the time to the 30th of June next. Messrs. Butler and Logan opposed and Mr. Allison favored the report.

The debate continued and a sharp passage took place between Messrs. Schenck and Butler.

Finally the report was agreed to.

The bill removing political disabilities was referred to the Reconstruction Committee.

At 3 o'clock P. M. the House was still in session.

Washington News.

CHICAGO, April 9.—The judiciary bill was passed. It provides for one additional Supreme Judge and nine new Circuit Judges, possessing the same power and jurisdiction within their own circuits as a Supreme Judge, that the Circuit Court of each circuit shall be held by a Supreme Justice for that circuit, or by a Circuit or District Judge, each sitting alone or the two sitting together. The Circuit Judges' salary is $5,000 each. The Supreme Judge is required to attend at least one term of the Circuit Court in each District of his circuit every two years. Any United States Judge of ten years' service and seventy years of age, may resign, receiving full pay as a pension. The act goes into effect on December first.

A Tribune's special says the House is strongly opposed to postponing the day of adjournment, and out of patience with the disposition of the Senate to talk everything to death.

The Virginia and Mississippi bill was sent to the Senate last evening and referred. It may pass the Senate in two hours, if that body chooses to do so.

Sickles refuses any appointment because he disapproves of Fish's policy, which is much the same as Seward's. Grant favors a positive policy and strongly desires to accept that which Sickles has under consideration.

By direction of the Secretary of War the route of travel to the Pacific coast is fixed over the Pacific Railroad. Two hundred dollars advance mileage will be paid to officers under orders from the East to California and Oregon and vice versa, upon application to the Quartermaster General.

A full meeting of the House Committee on the Pacific Railroad, has agreed to report a resolution to the House as the basis of a joint resolution as to the pending investigation of the alleged illegal issue of bonds to the Central Railroad on the 3d of March, and that no more bonds shall be issued to said company for work done east of Monument Point, before full acceptance of said road by the Government, and no more bonds shall be issued to the Union Pacific for work beyond Ogden, or until final acceptance of said road. The committee also resolved to ask the privilege to sit during vacation, at such time and place as may deemed advisable.

CHICAGO, April 10.—The Republican's special says the Pension Commissioner, Cox, has been notified that his resignation will be accepted. Several ex-members of Congress are applicants for the position.

The Tribune's special says the Fur-Seal protection bill was decisively killed in the House.

Up to midnight, the Senate in Executive session was engaged in a somewhat heated debate over Ashley's nomination as Governor of Montana.

The Times says the delegation here from Montana strongly oppose the confirmation of Ashley.

Mr. Perham, of Maine, will probably be appointed Commissioner of Pensions.

Gov. Campbell leaves for Wyoming in two weeks. The Capitol will probably be located at Cheyenne.

The Cabinet considered the Cuban question and fully approved the position of Secretary Fish that this country must maintain the policy regarding belligerents right that is exacted of foreign powers. Nothing therefore can be done looking to the recognition of the Cuban insurgents. It is believed that most of the foreign appointments were agreed on in the Cabinet to-day. It is said that New York has received five important missions.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, April 9.—A disastrous fire occurred at midnight in the Malt house of Midlinger, Schmidt & Co. It was entirely destroyed. Loss $300,000.

The report of the confirmation of Woodward is untrue.

NEW ORLEANS, April 10.—The affairs at the Auditor's office are becoming more muddled. The District Court, yesterday, ordered the books and documents of the office to be put in possession of the Judicial Sequestrator. Gov. Warmouth applied to the Supreme Court for a writ of prohibition against the Sequestrator. Meantime, no business is being done at the Auditor's office.

Much political excitement exists in the city and apprehensions are entertained that the exasperation of party feeling may result in an outbreak and violence. The police authorities were taking every caution to prevent it.

Owing to this dispute Bowen Farrington and others have obtained an injunction from L. S. Taylor, commissioner for the Sixth District Court at Sacramento, enjoining the tide land commission from making any grant to railroads.

NEVADA.

VIRGINIA, April 10.—No new developments from the fire at Gold Hill worthy of particular note. Everything remains closed and steam continues to be sent down from the slight opening in the Crown Point shaft. Some little steam, smoke and gas are escaping from the Kentuck shaft. Apparently pure steam escapes from the Yellow Jacket. There is considerable light smoke and gas. The shaft will not be opened sooner than Monday.

The names of those still missing are Geo. Edwards, Daniel O'Neil, A. Keinay and Thos. Laity, all in the 600 foot level; K. Ryan and John O'Brien, at the 230 foot level in the Kentuck [illegible] Martin Clooney and Joseph Glasson.

A man named Geo. Cox is unaccounted for, but it is supposed he has escaped. Tickets for the sufferers' benefit at Piper's Opera House have been selling here to-day and taken with a liberality becoming our people. Two to three thousand dollars will undoubtedly be realized. The proprietors of the Virginia and Gold Hill Omnibus Line have tendered their receipts on the occasion to the same fund.

Three new cases of small pox within the last twenty-four hours. No deaths. Bullion shipment for the week ending Friday was 9,3[illegible] pounds; value, $249,260 13. In consequence of the calamity business has been dull for the last four days. The stoppage of the Gold Hill works throws many out of employment, but it will be but temporary, it is supposed.

THE COMING MEN.—The Gold Hill News of March 16th has the following:

It is said by our exchanges that an immense number—10,000 or more—of men are already booked for this section of country, and only wasting the completion of the great continental railroad to jump on board the cars and come along. On the very day that the eastern and western sections of the road joins rails in Ogden City, away in the center of the vast interior, on that day the coming men will pass the central Rubicon on the cars, and come advancing toward us in the proud triumph of the nineteenth century. Those grand mountain chain barriers, for so many long ages deemed impassable to the iron horse will then have been successfully passed, and we shall see the coming men. We long to gaze upon the first of that booked 10,000. We want see the foremost man of the crowd. He will be the "coming man" of whom so much has been vaguely written for some time past. And he will not come on a velocipede either, as some have had the profane termerity to predict, but behind some snorting locomotive, thundering over the iron rails he will come.

Across the broad plains and desert wastes the lofty mountain chains will thunder the coming 10,000. How eagerly they will gaze upon the rocky hills, deep gorges, alkali flats and sagebrush wastes as they come along, and when at length they enter the borders of the young State of Nevada and realize that they are at length in the country so famed throughout the world for her mineral wealth, her bullion producing mines, her inexhaustible veins of silver and gold, to say nothing of her illimitable deposits of other minerals, her hills of iron and fields of salt, we predict that the coming men will feel a sensation of increased wealth stealing over them as they reflect that here after all is the true land to come to and get rich, that here is room and riches for all. We have a hearty welcome to bestow upon the first of that coming 10,000. We cannot show him the prettiest country in the world perhaps, but we can show him the richest.

The discovery of the law of 1789, which kept Mr. Stewart from serving as Secretary of the Treasury, has caused the suggestion to be made that it might be well to institute a search for others. We are all aware that a great many known laws are openly violated, but what unknown laws there are, to which we are going counter every day, nobody can be quite certain. The authorship of the law in question has been erroneously attributed to Alexander Hamilton. Ædanus Burke, of South Carolina, introduced it in the House of Representatives, June 30, 1789, the bill for organizing the Treasury Department being under consideration. Mr. Burke was born in Ireland, was appointed Judge of the Supreme Court of South Carolina in 1778, was a representative to Congress from that State from 1789 to 1793.

From Oregon City.—The Enterprise of Saturday contains the report of the City Seminary for the term just closed. The average attendance was less than usual on account of the prevalence of measles in the city during the months of February and March.....We clip the subjoined items from the Enterprise: James A. Sabbath School, was well attended and netted a nice purse for the object for which it was called.....The Superintendent of Public Schools for Clackamas county, Prof. S. D. Pope, recently made an annual report to Governor Woods, as the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State, from which the following figures are obtained: Total number of children in the county over four years and under twenty, 2,476. Male children are in excess about 10 per cent. Total number of districts in the county, 55; average number of quarters school taught in each district during the year, 2; number of teachers in the county, 51, of whom one-half are females.

Burglary and Robbery.—Between the hours of half past eight and half past nine, Saturday evening, the tailor shop of Mr. John O'Neill was burglariously entered and robbed. Mr. O'Neill shut the doors at half past eight and went out. Upon his return at half past nine, he found the back door ajar. Striking a light he found that the door had been forced open as if by a heavy push, the inside casing upon which is fastened the lock-catch, being bursted off. Going into his bed-room, the first thing which attracted his attention was one of his [illegible] upon the bed. The drawer had been forced open, breaking the lock, and had been rummaged. A trunk [illegible] near had also been [illegible]. Fortunately for Mr. O'Neill, he had left no money nor valuables in either, so that the thief was evidently disappointed in this part of his search. A horse shoe left on one of the work tables in the shop was found lying on the top of the bureau—probably used in forcing open the [illegible]. The thief next went into the front room, probably to examine the drawers back of the counter. [illegible] he wanted, he helped himself to a [illegible] cloth, containing about twenty-[illegible] worth nine dollars per yard. This was [illegible] Mr. O'Neill has missed, though he [illegible] that other articles were taken. It [illegible] burglar came up on the rear platform [illegible] buildings which jut out over the river's edge.

A Mistake.—The McMinnville Courier [illegible]: "We learn from a gentleman, who lately visited [illegible] real estate, that since work stopped [illegible] side railroad the value of real estate has declined in Portland and gone up in East Portland, so [illegible] our friend did not buy and thinks he can get [illegible] per cent less in Portland in thirty days [illegible] one month ago." There is some mistake [illegible]. The Courier's informant must have been [illegible] way. There has been no day this Spring, [illegible] or since the West Side Company [illegible] work, when real estate in this city has not had a decided [illegible]; and the prices are selling and buying [illegible] merely fictitious values affixed by owners. [illegible] that railroad prospects—good or bad—[illegible] the sales of property here in any appreciable [illegible]. It is true, however, that recent events in [illegible] have given a remarkable [illegible] to real estate prices asked, at East Portland; but although some good prices have been obtained, values in that burg have [illegible] rather wild, and are liable to tumble some of [illegible].

[illegible].—The Unionist says: Yesterday morning Mr. Geo. A. Edes received a very heavy blow on his [illegible] from a falling sign. He, with [illegible], were [illegible] the sign post on which sat the large mortar, when the large signboard hanging over the sidewalk was [illegible], in some way fell. We understand [illegible] the hall will be ready for occupancy by Sunday the 18th inst.....Yesterday we saw a petition asking for a tri-weekly mail route from Salem South through [illegible], [illegible] Buena Vista and on to Corvallis. [illegible] through a thickly populated country, [illegible] that is poorly served with mail matter.

[illegible] Postoffice.—The postoffice at this city is [illegible] under the new reg[illegible] a more [illegible] than it has been done for years. Matter received [illegible] is not, as we have known to be the case, put [illegible] distribution on the following Monday, Tuesday [illegible], but it goes through mill just as fast as it [illegible] put it through. Upon the arrival of the steamer [illegible] day, the mail [illegible] forty bags—was delivered [illegible] o'clock A. M. to the postoffice, and was [illegible] at 5 o'clock P. M. of the same day. We [illegible] that no such expedition was ever before [illegible] of this office with that kind of work. The public [illegible] rest assured that the office is and will be [illegible] to secure the greatest possible dispatch to [illegible], and the utmost possible regularity.

Odd Fellows' Building.—We learn that the Odd Fellows' Association received a deed, on Saturday, [illegible] time since purchased, at the corner of [illegible] streets. The enterprise of erecting an [illegible] hall will, therefore, be undertaken immediately. [illegible] advertisement appears this morning, giving [illegible] and builders that sealed proposals [illegible] Monday, the 26th, for the excavation [illegible] of the building. The building is to [illegible] now occupied by Mr. Loat[illegible]. It is to have fifty feet front on First [illegible] a depth of one hundred feet along Alder, and [illegible] high. When finished it will be, according to the plans and specifications, the handsomest [illegible] on the Pacific coast.

[illegible].—There are perhaps but few persons [illegible], says the Unionist, who are aware of the [illegible] which have been attained by the salmon [illegible] on the Columbia river. Aside from the many [illegible] where the fish is put up in wooden packages [illegible] are three firms engaged in canning fish, whose gross receipts will amount to $270,000. These [illegible] will pay out this season for internal revenue [illegible] the sum of $10,000. We get these facts [illegible], who has but recently visited the fisheries.

[illegible] Fire Alarm.—Just before dark Saturday [illegible] lamp over the desk at the rear end of Mr. [illegible]'s sales room, on First street, fell down and [illegible] and set fire to the premises, creating a general [illegible] alarm. [illegible] Shelby, a lad of about sixteen, being in the place, had sufficient presence of mind, however, to pull off his coat and smother out the flames, before any [illegible] was done, beyond the destruction of some papers on the desk, and some injury to the books. The act was well done.

Going East.—Mr. H. H. Johnston who has long resided in this city, and who has held several important and [illegible] positions in both public and private life among us, will leave by the next steamer for San Francisco and thence for Boston where he intends to reside [illegible]. He has an engagement to act as agent for one of the [illegible] life insurance companies of the United States. He will bear with him the good wishes of a wide circle of [illegible] friends.

Oro Fino Theater.—There was a good audience at the [illegible], Saturday, and a full house in the [illegible], the beautiful drama of Arrah-na-pogue being [illegible] on each occasion. As on each preceding presentation of the piece it was received with unbounded [illegible]. To-night, the dashing, racy comedy of "Sam," by request and for the last time.

[illegible] of Officers.—The First Hebrew Benevolent Society of Portland, held its annual election yesterday, [illegible] the following officers for the ensuing year: David Fraidenrich, President; Levi White, Vice President; I. N. Walter, Recording Secretary; Charles Fishel, Financial Secretary; D. H. Hildburgh, Treasurer; [illegible] Hirsch, Phillip Wasserman, B. A. Goldsmith, Alec [illegible], L. H. Lewis and Isaac Rosenfeld, Trustees.

From Astoria.—By the arrival of the Okanagan from Astoria, we learn there are three vessels at that place awaiting favorable winds to go to sea—the Falkinburg, the [illegible], and we presume, the Melancthon. The [illegible], which is over due from San Francisco, has not yet arrived, nor has the Hattie C. Besse, from New York.

Error.—Our item of Saturday morning relating to Rev. T. H. Pearne was wrong, the mistake resulting from an erroneous reading of the paragraph upon which it was founded. The Pearne mentioned by the Memphis paper was W. H. Pearne.

Grain Prospects.—Mr. A. J. Dufur, who, more than any other man in the State, has lately devoted himself to learning and publishing the resources of the State, [illegible] that the grain crop of 1869 will be fully thirty-three per cent. larger than that of any previous year.

Compliments.—We acknowledge the receipt last evening, of a palatable "sample" from Johnny Holton's new place on Alder street. Johnny has fitted up in good style and has concluded to not go to White Pine.

[illegible] Ill.—We regret to learn that Mr. Lee Millard of the firm of Millard & Van Schuyver, is dangerously ill of inflammatory rheumatism.

The Gold Hill News, 29th ult., says: In consequence of the Union Pacific Railroad constructors having claimed to have laid more miles, near Fort Bridger, in one day that the Central Pacific people have in any one day, the latter company have decided to beat them if it is a possible thing, by laying ten miles of track between sunrise and sunset. The trial takes place to-day, at the end of the track, of course, and we shall probably know to-morrow whether the feat is practicable or not. In some of the old States ten miles of a railroad would be looked upon as a six months' job at least.

The Superintendent of the work on the new mint about to be erected in San Francisco, advertises that sealed proposals will be received by him until Wednesday, April 14th, 1869, at 12 M., for furnishing and delivering on the site of the new Branch Mint all the rubble and dimension stone required for the building. Any species of stone, whether granite, marble, gneiss, limestone or sandstone, may be submitted, provided they are sound and durable.

☞ A Special Meeting of the Board of Delegates of the Portland Fire Department, will be held at the Council Chamber at 7½ o'clock, P. M., on Monday, 12th April, 1869, for the purpose of hearing the report of the Committee on Cemetery and to entertain any business that may be brought before the meeting.

By order of the President
EDWIN D. BACKENSTOS,
Portland, April 10, 1869. Sec'y P. F. D.

The New Administration has filled the various offices; so have Barman Bros. filled their spacious store, corner Front and Morrison Streets, with the Latest Styles of Merchant Tailoring Goods, consisting of French Cassimeres, Beaver, Broadcloths and all kinds of Vestings, also a fine Stock of Ready Made Clothing, and Gents' Furnishing Goods, which they are enabled to sell lower than any other House in their city, as their Mr. Isaac Barman is constantly in the San Francisco market, purchasing at the most advantageous prices, of which their customers always have the benefit. Go and see them—no trouble to show goods.

The fame of the celebrated Plantation Bitters has no parallel in the history of Medicine. The thousands upon thousands of bottles that are made and sold daily is but proof positive of their wonderful virtues. Thousands of Certificates can be produced showing the efficacy and certainty of the cures which they effect, and the Medical Fraternity, usually so jealous of anything which causes persons to think and doctor for themselves, are compelled to acknowledge its efficacy and wonderful virtues, and prescribe them for those who seek their advice. They are sold by all our druggists.

WALTHAM WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these timekeepers.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enable them to produce watches COMBINING THE BEST AND LATEST IMPROVEMENTS, and at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch, merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

For sale by all dealers.

No watches retailed by the Company.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

Each package bears the signature of G. VENARD.

HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.

He respectfully refers to the following

CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

NASHVILLE Tenn April 10 —Andrew Johnson made his promised speech in this city to day About three thousand people were present Mr Johnson thanked the people for their attendance saying his ambition had been fully gratified He desired no office at their hands He then made an extended review of the national finances and public debt His remarks on these topics were similar to those hitherto expressed He defended his exercise of the pardoning power said that he was not infallible, and possibly pardoned some that were undeserving, but that he acted from the purest motives and his best judgment He spoke for three quarters of an hour to the colored people many of whom were present He reminded them in the course of his speech, that he declared them free in Tennessee when the State was excepted from the Lincoln proclamation, but now on his return from Washington he found them slaves again—slaves to Loyal Leagues He warned them against this new species of thraldom and declared that the form of Government in Tennessee is unrepublican and in violation of the Constitution He condemned acceptance of gifts by public men The speech occupied three hours and was well received

Railroad Intelligence

The following telegram gives information of considerable importance in the railroad situation

WASHINGTON D C April 10 1869

[illegible]

The East Side Railroad Bill has passed both Houses and received the signature of the President The victory is complete

J H MITCHELL
S F CHADWICK

What the precise nature of this bill is we have no means of knowing We believe no accurate information on this subject has yet reached Oregon [illegible] we have only professions to be able to state just what the bill is or what its effect will be The impression however is that the bill is similar to the one introduced and discussed in February reviving the land grant and extending the period within which the assent of the company receiving it is to be filed Yet from the wording of the above telegram it would seem that the bill may be even more favorable to the East side than the former one We shall print the act as soon as received It has always appeared to us that an undue importance has been given to this grant of land by the contending parties and their respective friends It is the opinion of many persons well informed on the subject that the whole land grant for a Wallamet valley railroad would not build one mile of road and from a personal knowledge of almost every part of the valley we are decidedly of the same opinion The controversy about the land grant in this valley is as we have frequently stated a fight for an imaginary advantage Both roads we fully believe, will be built but the land grant will do little toward building either of them

The S F Herald of March 30th, states that telegraph transfers cannot be effected just now with New York, on account of the scarcity of gold in that city ' Business in the East is represented as almost crippled for the want of money —Herald

Fairly accounted for. How should there be any money in circulation on the Pacific coast when so vast a sum,—probably one hundred thousand dollars,—is locked up in the Oregon State Treasury ' The effect of this will be felt in London, next'

STATE ITEMS

The Methodist Sunday School at Eugene has a new library

An Albany man has invented a machine for making brick, which turns out 2,500 per day.

Dr D B Rice has removed from Albany to Salem to fill a Professor's chair in the Medical Department of the Wallamet University

F M Westfall had one of his legs broken in two places the other day at Albany by a vicious horse, who kicked him down and drew a dray over him

Beriah speaks of the Herald as "a paper which claims to be and recently was, the leading Democratic organ of the State." Of course that was before Beriah left the Herald and started the Press '

Says the Eugene Journal Quite a number of persons have gone, and we know of others who intend going to Goose Lake this spring to look for locations for stock There seems to be quite a rush for the Goose Lake Valley this season, and it is likely that there will be a considerable settlement there before long

DEATH DEATH —Adulteration Sure Death.—The World newspaper has exposed the vast amount of deleterious adulteration of liquors and groceries but in the Drug business it is carried on to a greater extent, thus producing Death, in consequence of physicians not obtaining the desired results from their remedies The Drugs and Medicines at the Oregon Dispensary are fresh and pure, hence all of our first class Doctors prefer our store to any other in this city

LOEWEA & KALTENBURG
Oregon Dispensary, 73 First street.

GREAT EXCITEMENT —The constant hum of activity at KOHN & FISHEL's yesterday, was occasioned by the receipt and opening of a very large and complete stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods Spring Styles—purchased and sent up from San Francisco, by Mr Fishel who is acknowledged to be one of the best judges of that line of goods, doing business in this city Call and see the Spring Styles
